

Interreg  Co-funded by the European Union
Öresund-Kattegat-Skagerrak

PROGRAM

09.00	Arrival, registration & light breakfast
09.30	Welcome by moderator Tine Gøtzsche Welcome by the ReproUnion Executive Board: Jens Sønksen, Head of Urological Research Center, Herlev & Gentofte Hospital Stine Gry Kristensen, Head of Laboratory of Reproductive Biology, Rigshospitalet ReproUnion focus and outcomes Interview with Kristine Koppelhus, Project Director
SESSION 1	REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH INNOVATION - DEVELOPING A TESTBED
09.55	Research and cross-border collaboration as a strong foundation for innovation Thomas Kjeldager Ryan, Senior Consultant, Teknologisk Institut
10.05	Case: Dx4Life - Transforming research partnerships into diagnostic solutions Yvonne Lundberg Giwercman, Professor and CEO Dx4life
10.15	Case: MiOXSYS - Validation of new technology for assessing male fertility potential and its role in IVF practices Martynas Linkevicius, CCO, Caerus Biotechnologies
10.25	Innovation and public-private partnerships - The industry perspective Rita Lobo, Senior Medical Director, Ferring Pharmaceuticals
10.40	SHORT BREAK
SESSION 2	THE KEY TO IMPROVED FERTILITY WITH RUBIC
11.00	Tine Gøtzsche talks to Ida and Laura about the couples participating in the ReproUnion Biobank & Infertility Cohort (RUBIC) Ida Behrendt-Møller, The Fertility Clinic, Hvidovre Hospital Laura Smidt Hansen, Dept. of Growth & Reproduction, Rigshospitalet

- 11.10 Unique focus on the couple factor to answer more questions about infertility
Lars Rylander, Professor in Environmental Epidemiology, Lund University
- 11.25 Using data from (RUBIC) to improve the infertility care journey
Eva Elmerstig, Professor in Health and Society Studies, Malmo University
- 11.40 Using samples from RUBIC - microbiome impact on pregnancy outcomes in couples undergoing ART
Maria Christine Krog, MD, PhD, Dept. of Clinical Immunology, Rigshospitalet
- 11.55 Fertility as a marker of future health and a tool for better prevention
Niels Jørgensen, Consultant, Dept. of Growth & Reproduction, Rigshospitalet
- 12.10 Q&A with the four speakers
- Group photo
- 12.30 LUNCH BREAK

SESSION 3 THE FUTURE

- 13.15 Perspectives from the European Commission on cross-border cooperation
Marlies Peeters, Programme Manager, DG REGIO - Unit Interreg, Cross-border Cooperation and Internal Borders
- 13.25 Policy impact – "Framtid med barn" initiative in Sweden
Åsa Hansson, Head of Committee for a Future with Children, Ministry of Health & Social Affairs
- 13.40 What's next for ReproUnion and RUBIC?
Aleksander Giwercman, Professor, Lund University
- 13.50 Carrying the torch forward: From regional lighthouse to national responsibility Concluding panel interview with Åsa Hansson, Aleksander Giwercman, Jens Sønksen and Anette Steenberg, CEO, Medicon Valley Alliance.
- 14.10 Networking with bubbles
- 15.00 End of Summit

